

RIGHT USE OF POWER

Presented by Cedar Barstow
WORKSHOP AND FACILITATOR'S TRAINING
AUGUST 28-31, 2008
AT THE GLEN IVY CENTER
IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA!

This approach to ethics fits the personal interests of specific groups such as: Attunement Practitioners, massage therapists, coaches, clergy, nurses, women, personal growth, social workers, psychotherapists, and leaders.

DATES: Labor Day weekend: Thursday 9 AM through Sunday 4 PM of August 28-31, 2008.
Thursday and Friday is Workshop; Saturday and Sunday is Facilitator's Training.

LOCATION: The Glen Ivy Center (www.glenivy.org) in Corona, CA near Ontario Airport (ONT)

WORKSHOP: Early registration discount (before August 1st):
WORKSHOP $300; FACILITATOR'S TRAINING $300

After August 1st: WORKSHOP $350; FACILITATOR'S TRAINING $350 (workshop is a pre-req.)

TUITION INCLUDES COURSE, BOOK, AND ROOM AND BOARD!!
(Extra nights available Wednesday and/or Sunday at $75 per night)
Bonus: Half price pass to Glen Ivy Hot Springs Spa!

CONTACT: Joyce Ellenbecker, jellenbecker@sbcglobal.net, 951-277-8701

"Because of the special environment, we are jumping at the chance....but we MUST have a minimum of 10 registrants by August 1st in order to keep our space at The Glen Ivy Center" says Cedar Barstow.

RIGHT USE OF POWER WORKSHOP:

Two day immersion in the dynamics of power. Learn about the neurology of empathy and the sociology of the Power Paradox. Evolve your personal and professional relationship with power. Learn four dimensions of power and four power styles. Explore the impact of the power differential on yourself and those you serve. Increase your skill in resolving difficulties and asking for and using feedback.

RIGHT USE OF POWER FACILITATOR'S TRAINING:

Opportunity to go deeper into the issues. Immersion in the resources and skills needed to present your own Right Use of Power programs. Use of the teacher's resource manual, PowerPoint, charts and handouts, talks and experiential exercises. Membership in the Guild which offers ongoing support for teaching.

MORE DETAILS ABOUT THE PROGRAM AT: www.rightuseofpower.com or CONTACT CEDAR BARSTOW AT: cedar@rightuseofpower.com; (303) 444-6835